

Filling out the Image Form

This is a simple form that will load your image information into a spread sheet.

You will need to complete a form for each entry. If you are entering only one art piece, you'll complete the form only once, but if you are entering three pieces, you'll need to fill it out three times.

At the bottom of the form is the Submit button, once you click it, you'll see the following:

If you think you have made a mistake, you have this one shot at correcting the form by clicking the words 'Edit your response.' Your form will open back up and you can make changes, then hit the Submit button again.

If you are entering more than one art piece, click on the words 'Submit another response' and fill out the form for your next art piece.

You can enter up to 2 pieces, so you can fill out this form up to 2 times.
